

Wati-Sharron Hopley

Angelic Reiki® Facilitator & Teacher

I do what I simply love doing – living my life in this moment with love, truth, wisdom and a knowingness to share my light with you.

If you feel warmth, happiness or hope as you read this, I gently nudge you to follow your inner guidance and embrace Angelic Reiki. For me this was the ‘missing link’ I had been looking for after a long journey of discovering who I was, why I was here and what I could do to help others on their journey too.

I became ONE with myself, with others, with this planet and beyond. Home really is where the heart is. I am happy within because I know I am a perfect divine being and have the amazing capabilities to create how I want my life to be.

Words cannot describe the gratitude and feeling Angelic Reiki continually does for me in this moment. My workshops are about holding space for you with an open heart and without judgment.

I look forward to sharing my knowledge and experiences with you alongside the loving support from the Angelic Kingdom.

Love & Angelic Blessings,

Waty Sharron xxx
