Hello, I am a Spiritual Guide. I specialize in energy healing, readings and spiritual clearing of your energy. I can help you see the positive light in your path and direct you toward a more relaxed and happy life. I am a practitioner of Angel Miracles, Isis Lotus Healing and Tarot Card Reading. Family and friends have been impressed with the accuracy of my psychic channeling. I strive to learn, I do my best. I hold my clients dear to me and help them all I can but I cannot choose for them - I am the messenger only.

I work with people from all backgrounds and I do not judge or make you feel that your problems are less important than anyone else's. I am here to help you find the peace in your life that is there for you no matter the blocks in your path.

Fees for my services are very reasonable as I am still working to develop myself both personally and spiritually, but I feel each of us are always learning and growing in whatever it is we do.

Clairvoyant

SEEING is a very special gift. Sometimes I can see very clearly and other times only shadow or shades of grey. One thing you must understand is that there are no PERFECT readings. For every person I read, the outcome will be different. No two readings ever come across exactly the same. I simply tell my clients to what degree I am getting the signal and how strong it is. If I see someone as if they are vivid and RIGHT in front of me - I say so. If I am only getting a shadow - I tell the client, so they do not sit there thinking they need to be looking for a dark hair man in the future when all I get is shadow and I am not sure if his hair is REALLY dark or maybe the shadow is making light hair appears darker.

I am merely give the info as I receive it and sometimes I am not MEANT to know or the client is not meant to know 100% all that is asked. I give what I can and do my best to help and I do not question why I am not "more evolved" or "better readers" etc.

ISIS Healing Circle

I hold a monthly ISIS Healing Circle (meditation and short healing) for participants. S$20.00 energy exchange is charged.

Private Consultation

I want you to feel free to contact me with any questions, no matter how big or how small, as every question is important and part of one's learning process! I do not consider myself any more special than anyone else, but I do feel a pull to help people find their true path to happiness. I am very humbled by the gifts that I have been born with and have learned in my course of work. I continue to learn more about my untapped abilities and as I do so, I will share them with my clients. Contact me and we can discuss your healing process, needs for readings and how I can help you embark on a positive path in your life.

Some of the issues I have worked with are:

- Anxiety, Stress and Depression
- Addictive Issues
- Stuck Life Issues
- Relationship issues & family issues
- Back Pain

Dear Pamela,

Thank you sooooo much for our session yesterday, it was so amazing, so exact and I was given much, much more than asked for. I am definitely taking heed of the messages channeled through you yesterday, and will be applying them. I'm definitely taking this most seriously. In the meantime, I will be practicing my meditations/centering more, so as to listen to my guides as closely as possible. I have also spoken with my dad tonight, and I pray that things will work out better.

I could feel so much peace, love and support from you, with me after our session ended yesterday. I would love to consult or work with you again in the near future, if possible.
Once again, thank you and God bless!

Adrian Lek
